

HOTEL/RESORT GUIDELINES

I hereby understand that it is my responsibility to assure I understand and comply with the following rules of the Hotel / Resort:

- All members of my team and delegation will treat the Hotel / Resort property with complete respect.
- There will be absolutely NO tape or paint of any kind on any walls, windows or doors during our stay.
- The condition of the hotel rooms will be the same (including furniture) when my team/delegation check out.
- For safety and courtesy to others staying at the Hotel / Resort, all members of my team and delegation will not prop our hotel doors open at any time.
- Illegal substances are prohibited.
- For added safety, all team members must travel, throughout the resort, in groups of 2 people or more.
- Resort Security will walk throughout the resort property at night and will be on patrol at all times. Athletes and delegation members must show courtesy to Resort Security in any request to comply with resort rules and/or for requests made to be courteous to other guests at the resort (e.g., keeping noise levels down).
- Buses to the events will load and unload outside the World Championships Week registration location. ALL INDIVIDUALS ON THE TRAVEL PACKAGE WHO RIDE THE CHAMPIONSHIPS BUSES MUST WEAR THEIR RESPECTIVE EVENT CREDENTIAL/LANYARD TO GET ON THE BUS. Whether in uniform or not, all individuals must have proof of being on a Worlds/World Championships hotel package to use the buses. We do not recommend that individuals participating in World Championships Week use Walt Disney World® Resort shuttles to competition venues because Walt Disney World® Resort shuttles DO NOT OPERATE in coordination with the times of our events or to our venues.
- The hotel, the ICU, IASF and USASF will not be responsible for any electronics, trophies, or other items. All individuals must carry these items to the bus / on their body or store these items in the ICU, IASF, USASF office located at one of the host hotels.
- If an individual under the age of 18 loses a room key, these individuals must be accompanied by an adult or coach to receive a new key.

WALT DISNEY WORLD ® RESORT CODE OF CONDUCT I hereby understand that it is my responsibility to assure that I understand and comply with the following Hotel / Resort Code of Conduct:

WHILE AT THE HOTEL

- All members of the team and delegation will treat everyone (fellow athletes, coaches, stakeholders of our sport, guests, all individuals, and cast members, etc.) with complete respect, as everyone at these Championships represents their team, themselves and their countries as ambassadors of our sport.

SPORTCHEER SCOTLAND HOTEL/RESORT GUIDELINES

- Disrespectful conduct or behaviour such as vulgarity, excessive rowdiness, excessive noise and all other actions that negatively affect other guests or cast members is not permitted.
- During the quiet hours (22:00/10 pm - 8 am), all members of the team and delegation shall be considerate and refrain from any conduct that could disturb others in the vicinity.
- Voices, televisions, or other devices must be kept at a respectful low level at all times.
- Doors should be opened and closed quietly.
- Congregating or running in halls is not permitted.
- For the safety of all guests, the team and delegation shall not engage in any unsafe act or acts that may impede the operation of the resort or any associated facility. Examples include: cutting in lines and leaving laundry unattended in washers / dryers for long periods of time.
- All members of the team and delegation shall keep guest rooms enjoyable for all guests and free from damages. It is understood that damages to rooms, paint, or excessive cleaning will be charged SportCheer Scotland. Therefore, all members of the team and delegation will not shower with the curtain outside the tub as this can cause water damage and do not hang items from the sprinklers in the ceiling as this can trigger the sprinklers and cause flooding.

WHILE AT THE POOL

- An adult chaperone must be at the pool while minors (team or delegation members under the age of 18) are at the pool.
- Proper attire must be worn at all times, including at pool areas (i.e., no revealing or transparent swimwear or bathing suit thongs).
- Pools will experience a “hard close” every night, where pools will close at a specific time with no exceptions. Please check specific pool “hours of operation” at your resort hotel.
